"ON THE STREETS OF INDIA."

As Seen by Doctor Dorsey.

Powers Educational Split Reel.

Released April 15.

The cheapest thing in India is men. The average daily wage is five cents. Indian streets swarm with humanity, curious sights and odd vehicles. In the wedding processions everybody is represented but the bride. The barber carries on his trade in the street. And so does the blacksmith. Everything is washed in the river, and everybody bathes in public. For ten months in India there is no rain, so the land has to be irrigated. The same kind of wall sweep is used today in the days of Buddha.
